

PETITION FOR FORMATION OF NEW COUNTY

Cover & Signature
Sheets Must Be Back
to Back

PURPOSE: Form "Siuslaw" out of west 1/5th of "Lane" County

COUNTY BOUNDARY:

Boundary of Siuslaw County is: east of the Pacific Ocean, north of the boundary of Douglas County, west of and including Township Range Seven West, and south of the boundaries of Benton County and also of Lincoln County.

AFFECT TO OREGON:

The formation of a new county from the western-most 1/5 of Lane County has been contemplated for many decades. A smaller and more regionally harmonious county would provide cost effective citizen representation and delivery of essential public services. In Oregon, local "county" administrative bodies manage all public functions and services not administered by the Federal, State, Cities/Municipalities, or Special Districts. When approved, 1/5 of the landmass of Lane County will be transferred to the new Siuslaw County; along with appropriate and proportionate assets, resources, revenues, and liabilities located within the new county's boundaries. Approval will result in NO CHANGE in the taxes paid by the residents of the new county. Now though, most of the property taxes and user fees collected within the area of Siuslaw County will be used to provide essential law enforcement, safety, infrastructure, administration, and special district services "exclusively" to its residents.
